Registration Deadline is October 11, 2016

Roles and Responsibilities is a required course for both treasurers and deputies to complete the Master certification and thus be eligible for the Career Development Program administered by the Compensation Board. Deputies who have NOT taken the R&R course and are candidates for the Career Development Program (Master certification) should be given priority in your office for enrolling in this course.

For more information go to the Certification Handbook. If you have questions on certification, contact Al Spengler at aws@virginia.edu or 434 982-5518.

The enrollment form is online at the TAV web site at: <http://www.vatreas.com>. Clicking on course registration here will take you to the Weldon Cooper Center for Public Service web site at the University of Virginia. All registrations should be done on-line. How to register is explained on the web site. You will need a password to log onto the online registration system.

Payment can be made on-line with a credit card. You can also pay by check, electronic transfer or LPO. To make payment using a method other than credit card, please print out your registration form and enclose a copy with your check. If paying via electronic transfer or via LPO, please include the invoice number with your payment.

Checks should be made payable to the University of Virginia and mailed to Treasurers' Association of Virginia, Cooper Center for Public Service, PO Box 400206, Charlottesville, VA 22904-4206.

The registration fee is $160 for members of the Association and $235 for non-members. A $20.00 processing fee will be assessed for cancellations. No refunds for cancellations received less than 48 hours before the course unless your space is filled.

Lunches both days as well as refreshment breaks both days are included in the registration fee. If you need a vegetarian meal, please indicate your dietary needs during the registration process in the special dietary or physical accommodation text box.
